Joey the Turk Palermo, a trigger-guy for Mob boss Big Nose Sam Saraceno, wakes in the morning in the Eternal Triangle BB. He is in bed with the beautiful Honey Stuyvesant. He wonders if Big Nose Sam will allow him to be in love with Honey. That is the first love story. Hugh Styling, the would-be poet, is also falling in love with Honey. But is Honey capable of love? And does Hugh understand what love is? He is trapped by Evelyn, an older woman who has bought him or at least hired him for a year. Babe Wandrous Wade, two years running Miss Kaluga, Ohio, knows she doesn't love her husband, Reg Wade the bookstore billionaire. Meanwhile there is always death. Someone is murdered and practically everyone is a suspect, including Parker Boomer Daniels, the police chief. This is the sixth and final tale of Boomer in the rural New England village of North Holford on the shore of the beautiful Lake of Dreams.
