Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Index, Vol. 15: Published by the Junior Class of Massachusetts State College, January, 1884 The year which we chronicle has been one full of events; some for which we are thankful, while in others we should have wished differently. Everything seemed to prosper under the vigorous hand of Pres. Chadbourne, when he was suddenly taken away from us. He, who was our teacher and our friend, has imprinted his character upon the minds of us all, inspiring us to nobler and higher motives. He was a model which we shall ever remember and strive to imitate. The presidential chair was occupied very acceptably during the remainder of the year by Prof. Goodell, when he was relieved from his duties by President Greenough. To him we extend a hearty welcome, and hope that success will attend his efforts in behalf of the college of which we are students. Let us all give him a helping hand in this work of building up the institution. We still retain the members of our Faculty, although it was rumored that Profs. Goodell and Bassett would depart from us. Dr. Manly Miles, formerly of the Michigan Agricultural College, has been elected to the professorship of Agriculture, and is pursuing his duties with good success. Instruction in mental and moral science is now given by the President. We trust that this branch will be sustained, as we consider it of much importance. A course in Latin has been introduced as an optional. The original purpose in the foundation of our college was to teach those branches which related principally to agriculture and mechanic arts. But the idea has expanded, and...
