Excerpt: . . . fxjilatiart) HUmatk. In pouring forth my lament over the sorrows and sufferings of the Church, inflicted at this time by the Tractarian apostacy, I have not hesitated to speak my thoughts out in plain English, because the subject and the occasion both demanded it. Drawing-room courtesy may be a fit and proper thing for a drawing-room, where strict veredicity is not required on either side, and no one is deceived by the want of it; but in matters of life or death, like the present, the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so far as it be known, must be told without respect of persons, fearing God and nobody else. But this stern and painful duty can never be discharged faithfully, by feminine or fictitious language. When the Church, by her lax or faithless officials, slackens in her defence of genuine Protestantism, which is but another name for vital, saving truth, it is time that her true sons should give alarm with no uncertain sound, and bid her call up to lively remembrance the rock whence she was hewn and the high vocation which she has the honour to hold. Protestantism is but a new name for primitive or primaeval divinity, as it was in the beginning, is noAV and ever shall be. It embraces the whole doctrine of Christ, as St. Paul defended in the school of one Tyrannus--nothing more and nothing less. It implies a protestation against all error,...
