

Closing Costs (Stewart Realty Book 3)

By Liz Crowe

Tri Destiny Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 202 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. Love conquers all Not likely, according to Sara Thornton. Shes spent eight years coming to terms with the new parameters of her life while resigning herself to the idea that happily ever afters are best left to fairytales. Sales manager for her successful real estate office and juggling an added element of responsibility she never thought shed face, Sara continues to struggle with the men in her life. Love, for her, has only meant hurt, broken trust and anger; all of which shes completely banished from her life, so she claims. Jack Gordon has come a long way since his early days of obsession with Sara. As the general manager of Stewart Realty, his own level of responsibility for the well-being of others has ramped up. Hes even honed his caretaking skills, now that he has someone who loves him unconditionally. Continuing to invest effort and rebuild their relationship, he and Sara grow close as friends. Despite this, his ultimate question remains unanswered; the one he keeps asking, no matter how many times she says no. Sara isnt prepared for the keen focus of his...
