Not illustrated. 1912 Excerpt: .may command ten times the local knowledge when properly administered because it can have ten times the number of assessors by combining the machinery of the general tax system with the machinery of the income tax. In Wisconsin taxpayer A is used to check the accuracy of taxpayer B. What is outgo to B is income to A. B is asked to state with respect to certain important items of outgo the names and addresses of the recipients. There is thus a cross check of which the federal government could probably not avail itself. With one group of taxpayers the federal government has a great natural advantage: the large interstate corporations, only a part of whose business is transacted in Wisconsin. But the Wisconsin income tax has, on the whole, encountered very little difficulty with this class of taxpayers, and such difficulty as has been encountered can be avoided very largely in subsequent years. The large interstate corporations usually keep their books in such a way as to make it possible to apportion or allocate fairly to the state of Wisconsin its share of the earnings. Their stock is frequently listed on the exchanges and their financial operations are publicly reported. Moreover, these corporations are as a rule above petty deception. The large foreign corporations have dealt quite as fairly with the Wisconsin income tax as any other class of taxpayers. It is just as easy to assess the big interstate corporations under the income tax...
