

Christian Perfection

By Albert Moritis Oti Agyemang

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The goal of Christian life is attaining spiritual perfection. In today's consumerist and on-the-go lifestyle, revisiting the question of spiritual perfection is crucial, refocusing and life-renewing. Being a Christian is not the result of ethical choice or lofty ideas, but an encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction. It is only when we have established this renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ that we blossom into an enriching friendship with God and are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. Some Christians believe that self-piousness is the way to heaven and spiritual perfection. This is a false remedy which cripples the human heart and our proper nature as Christians. That is why this book examines the some traditional teaches in Christendom as possible way of attaining perfection of charity and be transformed. The Dominican theologian St. Thomas Aquinas is well known for his brilliant treatment of central themes of the Catholic faith and theology. Seen in the cast of intellectual genius, many miss the spiritual fervor that welled up in...
