It remained for the Commission to make a selection from the list provided, and they did so. By unanimous vote, Daniel Chester French, having a studio near Stockbridge, Mass., was chosen. He promptly accepted the honor, and, in a conference with the Commission, suggested as collaborator, Mr. Henry Bacon of New York, the architect of the Lincoln Memorial at Washington. These names were at once presented to the Governor and Council as the choice of the Commission, and they were confirmed Aug. 10, 1921. The Commission learned that Mr. Bacon and Mr. French had been associated for twenty-five years in producing and giving an artistic setting to public monuments that the one or the other had contracted to erect. The...
