

Lift High the Cross: Where White Supremacy and the Christian Right Converge

By Ann Burlein

Duke University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Lift High the Cross: Where White Supremacy and the Christian Right Converge, Ann Burlein, Both the Christian right and right-wing white supremacist groups aspire to overcome a culture they perceive as hostile to whites, families, and heterosexuality. The family is threatened, they claim, by a secular humanist conspiracy that seeks to erase all memory of the nation's Christian heritage by brainwashing its children through sex education, multiculturalism, and pop culture. In Lift High the Cross Ann Burlein looks at two groups that represent, in one case, the "hard" right, and in the other, the "soft" right-Pete Peters' "Scriptures for America" and James Dobson's "Focus on the Family" - in order to investigate the specific methods these groups rely on to appeal to their followers. Arguing that today's right engenders its popularity not by overt bigotry or hatred but by focusing on people's hopes for their children, Burlein finds a politics of grief at the heart of such rhetoric. While demonstrating how religious symbols, rituals, texts, and practices shape people's memories and their investment in society, she shows how Peters and Dobson each construct counter-memories for their followers that reframe their histories...
