They are far superior hounds to your mad friend Kingston s. I suppose Madame O Carroll tells you all the news of your paternal abode, so I need say nothing on that subject. Things are going on queerly enough at Ballymore. Bell Trench still holds her ground there. She rode a steeple-chase last Tuesday week with Man us Bodkin, and distanced him. The line was from Ballingeary graveyard to the back gate of Ballymore. They were neck-and-neck as far as the gravelpit, but there Manus s horse stumbled and threw him--Miss Bell hurra d for the fall of her competitor, and came in to the post fair and easy. Certainly, it must be admitted, that no...
